

Mill Lane Primary School Overview of Writing Curriculum

Y6 A1	To Persuade To Entertain	Travel Brochure for audience choice of: Young Family, Couples, SAGA To write an atmospheric ghost story for other class mates for Halloween A travel brochure for Camp Green Lake.	To Inform To Inform	A newspaper report about Scott's death and Arctic Exploration. To write a biography of Robert Falcon Scott for the school library display. Diary Entry for someone on the Titanic	To Entertain To Entertain	A descriptive account of the Blitz to inform other children of the horrors of war. A short story set in WW2 including a flashback from a war survivor. Written for elderly people in the area to enjoy. To write a short story with dialogue being used to develop characterisation and move action forward.
A2	To Entertain To Persuade	Diary Entries: From Stanley at Camp Green lake. Audience - Stanley Letter from Stanley to his parents to reassure he is ok. Audience - parents. Children to write a reply from Stanley's parents	To Entertain To Inform	Adventure story about going through a portal to an icy kingdom for Radio2s 500 words competition To write a non-chronological report about saving the habitats of Arctic animals to inform KS2 Children Newspaper Report from the Titanic	To Debate To Persuade	To debate whether we should restrict immigration and refugee arrivals into this country as a letter to be sent to our local MP or PM To convince Mrs Skillcorn by any means possible to allow different End of SATs treats. Write a newspaper report detailing the wonderful treats they enjoyed.